

How to Shut Down the Global Casino

The case for more liability

Hans-Werner Sinn

AEA Meetings Philadelphia
January 2014

Economic globalization 1990 - 2007

- World GDP + 64 %
- Trade + 199 %
- Financial transactions + 1,007 %

Summary of the argument

- Financial industry invented opaque financial products
- Competition of laxity implied excessive deregulation
- Gambling with limited liability
- Huge net capital flows and current account imbalances
- Overheating, bubbles, recession
- Policy recommendation:
more equity, more liability

Savings glut?

Ben Bernanke, Bundesbank speech (2007)

“These external imbalances are to a significant extent a market phenomenon and, in the case of the US deficit, reflect the attractiveness of both the US economy and the depth, liquidity, and legal safeguards associated with its capital markets.”

The regulatory causes

Regulatory deficiencies

- 2004 S.E.C. decisions
- Off-balance sheet business
- Mark-to-market principle
- Basel: low risk weights
- Competition of laxity

Limited liability, opaqueness and expected bail-outs create casino-like attitudes

- Undercapitalization
- Excessive risk-taking

Policy recommendations

- Much more equity
- Contingent Convertible Bonds (CoCos)
- All activities in balance sheet
- Basel III with better (or no) risk weights
- Rating agencies to be paid by the buyers
- Anticyclical leverage ratio
- Lowest-value principle (Colbert)
- Bankruptcy procedures for banks and states
- International regulatory harmonization
